

Artist Statement:

Rebecca Zeiss approaches photography with a painting and drawing perspective. She uses layering either physically in the work, virtually or imagined. The images often ask the viewer to reconsider their personal memories from childhood connecting current time with past and remembered time and reconsidering what we thought we knew.